United States Naval Hospital Naples, Italy

CAPT K. O'FARRELL, MC, USN
Commanding Officer

21 OCT 03 Readiness Now,

VTC Topics

- New Hospital
- Force Health Protection
- Emergency/Disaster Prep
- Primary Care Optimization
- Patient Safety
- C-9 Divestiture

Move to New Hospital at Gricignano

- 23 APR Purchase new hospital
- 20 JUN Ribbon Cutting ceremony
- 21 JUL All patient care at new facility
- 30 SEP Agnano lease terminated

Force Health Protection

- Preventive Health Assessment
- SAMS
- Deployable Teams
  - Primary Care Response Team
  - Surgical Response Team
  - SPRINT Team

Emergency/Disaster Readiness

- DVATEX Site Visit 25-28 AUG 03
  - Training 170 Staff CBNRE
  - Tabletop Exercise for Lead Group
  - Readiness Analysis
- DoD IG Disaster Prep Inspection
- Action Team refining disaster response

Primary Care Optimization

- 5 certified Emergency Medicine physicians
- Open access Family Practice Clinic
- Behavioral Health Integration Project
- Strengthen internal and external capabilities

Support of Iraqi Freedom

- Occupational Health/Preventive Medicine
  - 600 Transient DoD personnel
  - Area-specific medical briefings
  - Pre-deployment health assessments
  - Anthrax and smallpox vaccination
  - Post-deployment screening

Patient Safety

- 2003 National Patient Safety Goals
- 2004 Goal of reducing infections
- Safety Stand-down
- Medical Team Management Training
- Failure Modes and Effects Analysis
  - PCA pump medication procedures
- Patient Safety Specialist

C-9 Divestiture Impact

- Completed SEP 02
- Commercial transportation for MEDEVAC
- USAF funded $540K via COMNAVEUR
- Analysis of MEDEVAC 2002/2003
- Optimize PPN for Naples and Gaeta
- Build relationships with Italian Hospitals
- Support requirements for La Maddelena

Questions?